...with a German YFU Student!

YFU's Host Families have learned many things about Germans:

- There is a lot of geographical diversity among regions as well as differences in the people specific to those areas.
- Public transportation tends to be better in Germany
- Our cultures are very similar.
- Our student was surprised by the size of Wal-Mart and the fact we could get food and bicycles in one place.
- German students tend to know a lot about Germany's history.
- There are no pop-tarts in Germany.

Experiences will vary depending on the student.

You too can learn about the people and cultures of Germany by hosting a German YFU student!

Youth For Understanding (YFU) is looking for host families in your community. Families all over the US have found this to be a wonderful way to discover the world and help young people expand their horizons. Hosting can be one of the most rewarding, fun and enriching experiences your family can have.

Almost 250,000 students, families and volunteers around the world have joined YFU. More than 2,000 YFU international students from over 60 different countries will arrive this summer to live with a host family and attend a local high school.

Will you join us?

"We've had fun learning some different terms or words... early on my husband was teasing her and I said 'watch out he's pulling your leg.' After explaining what that meant, she told us that in Germany they would say 'he's putting a bear on your nose.'"

– Kim, Host Mom, Michigan
