

YFU USA Quarterly School News Exchange - September 10

YFU prepares young people for their responsibilities and opportunities in a changing, interdependent world.

YOUR STUDENTS CAN WIN A SCHOLARSHIP TO BECOME AN EXCHANGE STUDENT

YFU USA awards over 300 scholarships to American teenagers to study abroad each year. Below is a small sampling of the many scholarships available for your students.

Program Name	Country & Duration	Deadline
James Bradley Peace Foundation	Japan, Year	October 12
Kikkoman National Scholarship	Japan , Summer	December 7
Mazda Nationwide Scholarship	Japan, Summer	December 7
Skylink Travel House	Multiple, Year	December 7
Finland US Senate	Finland, Summer	January 4
Japan-America Friendship	Japan, Summer	January 4
The YFU America's Scholarship	Multiple, Summer	January 4
YFU Stipendium to Germany	Germany, Year or Semester	February 8

Check out our website to see all of our scholarships and to get details, eligibility, application deadlines and online application. www.yfu-usa.org

Request flyers and/or materials for your classroom:
admissions@yfu.org or 1.800.TEENAGE

New Programs for 2011

Tango in Argentina: Spend two months in Buenos Aires learning to Tango, a unique and complex dance with huge cultural significance in Argentina.

India, Ghana, Thailand, and South Africa: New this year each of these countries are offering a unique opportunity for students to attend a local university/college or volunteer in the local community or both. Students can engage in the world immediately upon high school graduation. These opportunities are for graduating seniors as part of YFU's gap year offerings.

For details on the YFU Tango program in Argentina and our new gap year offerings please visit www.yfu-usa.org for details.

Additional Teacher Resources can be found at www.yfu-usa.org/educators/teacher-resources including posters, bookmarks, presentations.

All programs and scholarships are subject to change or cancellation without notice.

Exchange
Student
Posters

