Exchange has the power to profoundly and positively impact individuals, families, communities, and, hopefully, the world.

I like feeling a part of that!

Reasons Why You Should Volunteer with YFU

Be a YFU Volunteer

YFU is a strong and vibrant volunteer based organization with more than 60 years of success in international student exchange. YFU has built a reputation for exceptional quality, safety and support. Each year, approximately 4,000 students and families participate in intercultural exchange programs in more than 60 YFU partner countries. Below are just some of the benefits that our volunteers have discovered.

As a YFU USA volunteer you will:

- Directly impact the life of an American or International teenager
- Promote cultural awareness and international understanding
- Increase your understanding of family dynamics both in the US culture and from around the globe
- Create life-long friendships between international students, their host families and communities
- Enhance your leadership, communication, and interpersonal skills through professional development trainings and “hands-on” experience
- Benefit your local educational system by introducing exchange students to your high school
- Be eligible for discounts should your son or daughter choose to travel overseas as a YFU USA student
